ROXANNE DUNBAR-ORTIZ TO SPEAK ON INTERNATIONAL HUMAN RIGHTS AT THE MARXIST SCHOOL OF SACRAMENTO

Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz, activist, author and professor, will give a talk
"International Human Rights" on Thursday, April 18 at 7 p.m. in the Green Room at the Sierra 2 Center, 2791 24th Street, Sacramento.

Dunbar-Ortiz' talk is part of the Point of View: Challenging Perspectives on Current Issues speaker series sponsored by The Marxist School of Sacramento.

Dunbar-Ortiz will focus on how global freedom movements have worked with the United Nations to build international human rights law. She will suggest how this work can help U.S. activists challenge U.S. globalization and militarization.

Dunbar-Ortiz is a professor of ethnic studies and women's studies at CSU, Hayward. The Great Sioux Nation, Roots of Resistance is one of the many books she has written.
